

Weekly Faculty Zoom Bible Studies

The purpose is to connect and encourage fellow faculty through God's word. Keep each session one hour long. Gather any Christian faculty that are interested. Choose a day and time when participants can meet (i.e. Tuesdays from noon till 1 pm).

Pick a book of the Bible to study. A facilitator prepares the lesson to cover 10-15 verses each time with discussion questions. The facilitator position can rotate among members. As people come on the Zoom, engage in small talk. Below is a sample guide:

I. Welcome/Small talk

"How was your weekend?"
"Share one good and one hard thing you are going through"
"Any sports you are following?"

II. Announcements

Next Bible study? Faculty Social?
Common Call Conference? Faculty Prayer time?

III. Open in Prayer

IV. Sharing

A question of more depth (Heather Holleman has put together a great list of questions you can use as a resource "Community Building Questions".)

V. Lesson

1. Read the Passage
2. Discussion Questions
3. Application to life

VI. Pray for one another

Close in prayer for each other.
